Ka mihi nui āhau ki a koutou
katoa,

Thanks to Bob Gass there is more we can learn from ants...

'Lazy people are soon poor; hard workers get rich.'

A leaf-cutting ant may carry up to fifty times its own weight more than a hundred metres. That's the equivalent of an 80 kg man carrying four tonnes on his back for ten kilometres!

In a single summer, a large colony of ants may excavate 14 to 18 tonnes of earth to make a nest, and carry two tonnes of material back into the nest for food. It can make as many as four round trips a day to food sources that may be more than 120 metres from the nest. That's roughly equivalent to a person walking 110 km.

If the ant had the stride of a man, it would be capable of bursts of speed in excess of 100 km per hour, and would walk normally at a speed of 32 km per hour. (And you think you have it rough!)

One thing about an ant you can count on: he always gives his best and pulls his share of the load.

Teach your kids that their reputation will never rise above their work ethic, and how people view them as workers.
The success of the Walt Disney empire is based on the philosophy of its founder: 'Whatever you do, do it so well that when people see you do it, they'll want to come back and see you do it, and they'll want to bring others and show them how well you do what you do.'

Teach your children to work hard, always finish the job, and always give their best. If they learn that lesson well, you won't have to teach them much about success—it will be their constant companion.

Aroha-tino-nui,

Michelle Cameron

SIR PETER BLAKE LEADERSHIP AWARD

At the end of last Term a group of Year 8 students travelled to Palmerston North to honour one of their peers - Tsinjin Tahau.

Tsinjin received recognition for her leadership. Below is the picture captured showing Tsinjin acknowledging her peers and their tautoko. The following citation read shares why she was awarded Sir Peter Blake leadership honours.

Tsinjin Tahau is a fine young lady who leads well in all areas of school life.

She is a student council leader, the 'A' netball team captain, hockey player, academic mentor, an accomplished piano student and choir member.

Tsinjin leads with kindness. She is willing to serve others without expecting anything back.

Tsinjin is honest and respects herself and others. She makes the most of opportunities and encourages others in their endeavours. She is a RICHER influence.

Tsinjin is one of many leaders that represent themselves, their whanau and our kura well.

STUDENT ABSENCES—You can text your child's absent message to 027 758 5514 or email via school app or simply call the school office at 06 327 8229 before 9am.

She is a well deserved recipient.

WRITERS' CORNER

Room 1 students have been exploring the language features good writers use.

Check out some of the snippets captured in their introductory sentences for their character descriptions...

'Her face does not expose her age...'

Zyeisha Haitana

'He has working man hands. When you hold his hand it feels like sandpaper'

Christopher Beetham

'My special people are my Nan and Koro. It's hard to separate one from the other...'

Muzzaiah Mahauariki

'My papa's hair is a vibrant, silvery grey. He has it in a low ponytail—never untied.

Natahlia Simeon

He hono aroha e kore
e motu;
ka pa he taura waka e motu.
*Unlike a canoe rope, a love bond cannot be severed.

MID YEAR REPORTS and CONFERENCES

All students received their mid-year reports on Wednesday 1st August with your confirmed conference time.

We have scheduled our 3 way conferences to ensure you have an opportunity to discuss your child's progress.

Please bring your child's report with you.

Just a reminder conference days are Tuesday 7th August, Wednesday 8th August and Thursday 9th August.

On these days students will either go home at 12pm or be supervised in the hall until 2.45pm. If you would like your child supervised on either or all of these days please contact the school office.

There will be NO DANCE CREW and NO HOMEWORK CLUB on Thursday 9th August due to conferences.

COMMUNITY NOTICES

Te Rūnanga Rangatahi (Youth Community Centre) Survey

Have your say...

Miss Moelani Ngaata is gathering information from our community to help Youth/Adult and Community development.

Her aim is to establish an approachable service for others to seek guidance.

Miss Ngaata would appreciate your thoughts.

You can either share your thoughts through an online survey posted on the 'You know you are from Marton' Facebook page or contact her via email on terunangarangatahi@gmail.com

Palmerston North Girls High School OPEN DAY

The date published in recent newspaper advertising is incorrect.

Open Day is to be held on 7 August at either 3.30pm or 7.00pm.

He taonga rongonui te aroha
