"Being deeply loved by someone gives you strength, while loving someone deeply gives you courage."

Ka mihi nui āhau ki a koutou katoa; me ūhia mai te korowai o AROHANUI ki a koutou, (Greetings to you all; let the cloak of great Love wrap around you)

As term one draws to an end, we say farewell to a loved member of our team, Mrs Sjaan Mekkelholt aka Whaea Sjaan.

Whaea Sjaan has accepted a teaching position at Carncot Independent School in Palmerston North. I know that her decision to leave our James Cook school community was not an easy one.

I would like to thank Whaea Sjaan for the genuine love and care she gave so generously during her time with us. We wish her all the very best in her new role as Literacy Leader at Carncot and know that she will influence the world around her in a RICHER way.

Over the holidays we celebrate Easter and commemorate ANZAC. Initially it may seem as if these two occasions only have one thing in common
- a public holiday. Easter and ANZAC are occasions we gather together to remember actions; actions of sacrifice and of love;

Easter—One great sacrifice of love for all, forever,
and

Anzac— The sacrifice of many in love, for some.

Choose to spend time together sharing love often over these holidays.

He waka eke noa!

Principal

AROUND THE SCHOOL

JUNIOR NEIGHBOURHOOD SUPPORT ASSEMBLY

We celebrated the following students at this Terms Junior Neighbour Support Assembly.

Agapepunafofoalisaniulua

Semisi-Tulemau - We acknowledge Agape for the kindness and compassion she has shown towards her peers and younger students. Agape's willingness to help others achieve is appreciated. Ka pai you Agape!

Dominic True - Dominic leads in RICHER ways. He willingly offers support to others who need assistance and/or comfort. Dominic is thoughtful, humble, kind and encouraging. He is a RICHER leader who supports those in the spotlight to shine brightly. Dominic leads by example in all areas of his school, with courageous strength.

Tayven Rauhihi-Barlow - Tayven has made a commitment this year to endeavour to be the best he can be and shows resolve in doing so on the sports field and in the classroom. His endeavour and resolve will continue to reap rewards. Kia kaha Tayven!

Tabitha Williams - Tabitha's understanding of our RICHER core culture has grown. She is making the most of learning opportunities coming her way in the playground and the classroom. Tabitha's endeavour to be the best she can be and her resolve to run her race with perseverance is reaping rewards.

Nellie Edwards - Nellie has made the decision to be the best she can be. She is putting into practice the resolution skills taught over the years to support herself and others to find win-win solutions. Ka pai you Nellie!

Hendrix King - Hendrix has embraced inclusion in our RICHER core culture. In doing so he has demonstrated the importance of showing courage in new situations by making the most of all learning opportunities that come his way. Kia maia Hendrix.

Brody Wilkinson - Brody demonstrates all aspects of our RICHER core culture. He is a kind young man who has the ability to tutor others with skill. Brody's ability to encourage others and ask them questions to assist in building their understanding of the task at hand is appreciated and valued. Ngā mihi Brody!

Jacob Seigafo - Jacob's ability to show respect for himself, others and the environment around him is appreciated. The kind manner in which he does so influences others. Jacob's peers trust him and feel very secure around him. Thank you Jacob for showing kindness. Thank you for showing you care. We value you.

Allaye Karatau - Allaye is an angel who spreads kindness. Whenever someone needs a little aroha, she simply appears. Thank you Allaye for showing you care. Thank you for showing aroha, Allaye.

Tarla-Rose Hogan - Tarla-Rose has not been at school for long yet she takes each day in her stride. Tarla-Rose endeavours to be the best she can be and encourages others to do the same. Kia maia Tarla!

GRIP LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

Thirteen of our wonderful student leaders represented themselves, their whānau and our kura with excellence at the GRIP Leadership Conference held last week.

FROM OUR BOARD

During this journey of finding a new Principal for our school, we want to keep you informed as we move through the process.

- We have engaged a professional consultant to guide us from start to finish.
- We are busy forming a clear picture of what we are looking for in a Principal, then the position will be advertised.
- Once the advertisement closes we will begin the interview process.

This will take time, please be assured that we will be very diligent in ensuring that we have absolutely found the right person for the role before we decide to appoint a new Principal.

From your Board of Trustees;

Jessamy Glasier, Nevin Kuki, Stacey Howes, Jonathan Doggett, Jannelle Gray, Ramari Rauhihi-Barlow and Shane Gribbon.

GUMBOOT FRIDAY - Thankyou for supporting Gumboot Friday last week. As a kura we raised $263.70 to go towards this very worthy cause.

LITTLE BIRDIE TOLD US...

Let us know when your child has served our community or achieved something so we too can sing their praises.
